A terrorist is only a terrorist, not a Hindu or a Muslim.

Terrorism is of two kinds, one is political terrorism which creates panic on a large scale and another one is criminal terrorism which deals in kidnapping to take ransom money. Political terrorism is much more crucial than criminal terrorism because it is done by well-trained persons. It thus becomes difficult for law enforcing agencies to arrest them in time.

Terrorism spread at the national level as well as at international level. Regional terrorism is the most violent among all. Because the terrorists think that dying as a terrorist is sacred and holy, and thus they are willing to do anything. All these terrorist groups are made with different purposes.

Causes of Terrorism

People use terrorism as a weapon to prove and justify their point of view. The riots among Hindus and Muslims are the most famous but there is a difference between caste and terrorism.

The Effects Of Terrorism

Terrorism spreads fear in people, people living in the country feel insecure because of terrorism. Due to terrorist attacks, millions of goods are destroyed, the lives of thousands of innocent people are lost, and animals are also killed. Disbelief in humanity raises after seeing a terrorist activity, this gives birth to another terrorist. There exist different types of terrorism in different parts of the country and abroad.

This ratio is growing and is parallelto the emotional and psychological abuse happening. Steps are being taken nationwide to ensure the protection of children against child abusers. Experts recommend that parents can a central role in guarding their children. Parents should take care of their children. They should not leave their child with any stranger or an even elder relative. They should develop an interactive relationship with the child so nothing about the child remains hidden. The education system should also initiate courses based on sex education to promote instructive awareness among the children .

If you say there is no such thing as morality in absolute terms, then child abuse is not evil, it just may not happen to be your thing.— Rebecca Manley Pippert

Children should be taught self-defense courses in order to survive abuse attempts. The criminalization of child abuse of all forms should be ensured. Strict legal action should be taken against the abusers. The certainty of punishment should be increased.
